Dear Mr. Weisensee:

This is a final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, which you originally submitted on 6 June 2018, for any documents pertaining to intelligence or rumors concerning the sexual proclivities of deceased British Prime Minister, Edward Heath (1916-2005).

If you recall, we advised you on 26 June 2018 that your request was too broad and could not be searched. However, we advised that we could conduct searches for CIA-originated biographical materials on Edward Heath regarding the specifics of your request produced during the time periods 1955-1964 and 1970-1974; and we indicated we would begin the revised search unless we heard from you otherwise.

Accordingly, we processed your request as revised and in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended, and the CIA Information Act, 50 U.S.C. § 3141, as amended.

We did not locate any records responsive to your request. Although our searches were reasonably calculated to uncover all relevant documents, and it is highly unlikely that repeating those searches would change the result, you nevertheless have the legal right to appeal the finding of no records responsive to your request. As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 90 days from the date of this letter. Please include the basis of your appeal.
